

List of Public Comments for 08-10 Draft Allenstown Hazard Mitigation Plan 2020 Revisions

Provided 09-28-20

See accompanying Haz Mit document for affected pages prepared by CNHRPC

1. Table of Contents – 4 Hazard Risk Assessment – Local Climate Changes and Extreme Weather – change to “Local Climate Variations and Extreme Weather.”
2. Page 25, Extreme Temperature Hazards, “resulting from climate change.” - remove
3. Page 29, Hazard Risk Assessment, paragraph 1, “a review of climate changes” – change to climate variations
4. Page 94, Extreme Temperature Hazards, paragraph 1, “the extreme weather temperatures and climate changes...” - change to “abnormal temperature variations that New England, New Hampshire, the Central NH Region, and Allenstown may experience.”
5. Page 114, Air and Water Quality, paragraph 2, “The Climate Change Resilience Plan 2015.” OK
6. Page 149, Transportation Crash, first bullet point, “Crashes are expected to increase over time, especially when conditions become icy from winter snow melt (climate change)... change to “Crashes may increase over time, especially when conditions become icy from winter snow melt...”
7. Page 156, heading, “Local Climate Changes and Extreme Weather” change to “Local Climate Variations and Extreme Weather”
8. Page 163, heading, “Impacts of Climate Changes in Southern New Hampshire” study is done within a 50 year window....OK but 50 year window used by UNH is such a minute snapshot in time.....?
9. Page 163, second paragraph, “The Southern NH Climate Change Assessment, formally entitled Climate Change in Southern New Hampshire.....” OK
10. Page 163, last paragraph, “all of which result from climate change.” Change to “all of which may result from climate variations.”